CODE OF ETHICS

The Bull Terrier Club of South Australia Inc.

The Bull Terrier Club of S A Inc. believes that the following set of principles and practices should be an integral part of the activities of all Bull Terrier owners and breeders in the interests and the welfare of all Bull Terrier/Bull Terrier (Miniature) in accordance of the Breed Standard. The club understands that extenuating circumstances and situations may in rare cases result in deviations from these practices. In these circumstances, the matter shall be put in writing to the committee for discussion and adjudication. It is expected that owners and breeders would always act in the interests and welfare of their dogs and the Bull Terrier breed. A number of the following clauses are included in the Code of Ethics of the South Australian Canine Association (SACA). Breaches of these clauses are subject to disciplinary action by the SACA, and the Bull Terrier Club of SA will refer matters to the SACA if it is in possession of evidence of such a breach.
